

PARAGRAPH FORMAT

Sentence & paragraph

- A sentence is a group of words with at least one subject and at least one verb, and together these words must express a complete thought. It always begins with a capital letter and ends with a period, question mark, or exclamation point.
- A paragraph is a group of sentences about only one topic. It must have a topic sentence, supporting sentences, and a concluding sentence.

Topic /supporting/concluding Sentence

- ▮ The topic sentence states the main point of your paragraph and is usually the first sentence.
 - ▮ Topic sentence= Topic + Controlling Idea
- ▮ The Supporting sentences follow the topic sentence and "prove" it; they add details and related information.
- ▮ The concluding sentence often restates the topic sentence in different words.

Parts of a Paragraph

A topic sentence

Several Supporting sentences

A concluding sentence

Serita likes to spend her free time outdoors. Her favorite outdoor activity is gardening, and she loves to plant new kinds of flowers in her garden every year. She also enjoys taking long walks in the park. On sunny days, Serita goes to the beach with her friends. As you can see, Serita loves being outside in her free time.
